Care for the blind and the crippled may sound completely humanitarian, but on the contrary it is really an insurance so that society will not have an obligation to carry handicapped people as a complete burden. OUP is the world's largest university press with the widest global presence.

Social Welfare and Individual Responsibility.

Still, there is no question that Schmidt's essay is, overall, an excellent piece of work. The issue, welfare proponents claim, is not merely a clashing of societal rights but a matter of life and death, malnutrition and nourishment, disease and health, ignorance and education.

Social Welfare and Individual Responsibility / Edition 1 by David Schmidt, Robert E. Goodin

Had we not met the needs of the people, we might have waked up and found ourselves not just in creeping socialism, but perhaps going actually to the far extremes of either fascism or communism, because we could not find a way to meet the needs of the people.
