The facts underlying the case are undisputed. Clapp's expansion, plaintiffs filed a complaint with the Guilford County Inspections Department. It is indeed generally agreed among commentators that, because it permits a given local authority greater flexibility in balancing conflicting demands, the practice of conditional use zoning is exceedingly valuable.

ABFM

Clapp's two tracts of land must be suitable for all uses possible, not pursuant to the conditions set out in the conditional use permit, but under the general M-2 Industrial zone.
