summing

Why did I willingly read this? In summing up, the judge should, with much precision and clearness, state the issues joined between the parties, and what the jury are required to find, either in the affirmative or negative. I remember being taken for a drive in a foreign country by a kind lady who wanted to show me round. I discovered my limitations and it seemed to me that the only sensible thing was to aim at what excellence I could within them.

Of sex: It is obvious that you need not often go hungry if you are willing to dine off mutton hash and turnip tops. Herein Somerset Maugham pours the essence of his experience and philosophy.

The Summing Up by W. Somerset Maugham

They display their oddities because it has never struck them that they are odd. Sixty years after THE SUMMING UP was published, Maugham's controversial insights and opinions continue to stimulate conversation and debate.

Sum

I must write as though I were a person of importance; and indeed, I am- to myself.
