University of the State of New York Minutes of Meetings of the Board of Regents

Proposed Handling The proposed amendment will be submitted to the Full Board for adoption at the June 2009 meeting. The street railways are by no means convenient, as the Fourteenth street line is over half a mile distant from the park, and the Rock Creek Railway, although passing by the western gate of the park, delivers its passengers at a distance almost as great from the buildings where the animals are kept. This view was mistaken, and I note that the Court does not in so many words repeat this error.

George M. Stratton

The Board of Trustees offered him a substantial pay increase, but his issue was with the politics of the time, and not with his financial situation. But there is no contradiction.

The Board serves as advisor to the Board of Governors on matters pertaining to the institution and as an advisor to the Chancellor concerning the management and development of WCU. Even with shared television revenues, unlimited appearances by a few schools would inevitably give them an insuperable advantage over all others, and in the end defeat any efforts to maintain a system of athletic competition among amateurs who measure up to college scholastic requirements. This explains why it is that it was not seen before 1882.

Seventeen members of the board are appointed by the Governor and five members are UMass students elected by the student body on each of the five campuses. The District Court employed the correct test for determining whether college football broadcasts constitute a separate market -- whether there are other products that are reasonably substitutable for televised NCAA football games. The term of office of the nine voting members shall be nine years as set forth in Section 3341.

Background Information Final regulations to amend 34 CFR Part 300 were issued in December 2008 and became effective December 31, 2008. He rejected the argument the mind was unitary and could not be studied by splitting it into parts, by drawing on the analogy of studying a tree by looking at its constituent parts, themselves not functionally trees.
