The Atlantic Religion

The Atlantic Religion

He is trusted to take a large sum of the squire's money to England. Thomas wrote back promptly and was, characteristically, soon lecturing his new acquaintance on poetry — 'the emotional appeal in Auden wouldn't raise a corresponding emotion in a tick' — and politics — 'You are, I suppose, a good Socialist'; 35 when Jones wrote about his own attempts to 'achieve a body of workers' poetry', Thomas replied, 'the trouble is that in attempting to write for the Workers one generally writes down. We earnestly thank our contributors for their efforts and insights.
