Nazikeda Kadın (wife of Abdul Hamid II)

As the Moros have never asked more than that, it is not surprising, that they refused all overtures made, by Aguinaldo's agents, at the time of the Filipino insurrection. The Czar bought the neutrality of the Austria-Hungary Empire by promising them the principality of Bosnia-Herzegovina and hegemony over Serbia. Having lost everything in their flight, these refugees were extremely bitter towards their Christian neighbors.
