They also traveled with sails made of woven leaves of the moriche palm mauritia flexuosa.

Guyana Legends: Folk Tales of the Indigenous Amerindians

The Arawaks used it both for snuff and for smoking, generally in the form of cigars, though the pipe was not unknown ; while in the form of chewing tobacco in rolls; it was used as currency by the Caribs. In the Windward Chain were the Caribs, who demonstrated strong resistance until the 18th century but nevertheless failed to prevent European penetration and their own annihilation. Under this name, he appears among the Crow, Nez Perce, and Shoshone, on the western fringe of the Plains, but rarely among the Pawnee, , and Dakota and practically never among the tribes designating him as human.
