

Papers: 1905-68 - a collection of articles, pamphlets, lecture notes, newscuttings etc. concerning the Co-operative Movement and educational work within it.

- - History Research Paper Examples

Description: -

-Papers: 1905-68 - a collection of articles, pamphlets, lecture notes, newscuttings etc. concerning the Co-operative Movement and educational work within it.

-Papers: 1905-68 - a collection of articles, pamphlets, lecture notes, newscuttings etc. concerning the Co-operative Movement and educational work within it.

Notes: Bound scrapbook; unpublished.

This edition was published in 1968

Filesize: 46.102 MB

Tags: #Historical #Documents

Catalogue of the pamphlets, books, newspapers, and manuscripts relating to the civil war, the commonwealth, and restoration, collected by George Thomason, 1640

One reason for the narrow focus of these early political and commercial papers was that they were published largely for commercial and political elites.

History Research Paper Examples

Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 1950. In return, the political parties subsidized their newspapers, and those subsidies were important to the business model of newspaper publishing.

Historical Documents

Post office officials often worked as newspaper agents, soliciting subscriptions and collecting remittances.

American Archives: Documents of the American Revolutionary Period, 1774

Commercial papers focused on the world of business and commerce.

History Research Paper Examples

This newspaper would be a good source for information on the Jackson presidency, the Democratic Party, or the federal government; but is probably not the best source for news about businesses or rural life. Occasionally an advertisement might be embellished with a woodcut illustration, and the number of illustrations increased towards the end of this period. Women contributed more heavily to country, religious, and reform newspapers.

Catalogue of the pamphlets, books, newspapers, and manuscripts relating to the civil war, the commonwealth, and restoration, collected by George Thomason, 1640

By the late twentieth century Force's collection of materials from the years 1774-6 had become a valuable scholarly resource, as it contained the only surviving copies of many important documents. Some other political papers include: the Washington National Intelligencer, the New York Evening Post, the Baltimore Republican, the Philadelphia North American, and the Ohio Statesman.

American Archives: Documents of the American Revolutionary Period, 1774

Another common type of antebellum newspaper was the commercial paper. Littlefield and Parins, American Indian and Alaska Native Newspapers, 425-26; Danky and Hady, Native American Periodicals, xv. Margaret Fuller is probably the most famous newspaperwoman from this period, serving as a correspondent for the New York Tribune.

Historical Documents

American Indian and Alaska Native Newspapers and Periodicals, 1826-1924.

Related Books

- Dawlat al-fikrah.
- Travellers lay - a poem
- Bogomilstvo vo dukhovnata kultura na Makedonija = - Bogomilism in the Macedonian spiritual culture
- United States census of agriculture, 1925. - Statistics by counties. Final figures ...
- Politics of airport noise