Leon Rosselson, Where are the barricades?

I believe the hand of the Israeli government is behind this. Venue: Brompton Cemetery Chapel, Fulham Rd, Kensington SW10 9UG Time: 10.

'A Zionist without qualification'

Some are quirky in and of themselves, while all of them add to the overall quirky state of Berkeley.

Bread and Roses [James Oppenheim]

The view from the window is pure Metroland, though Lord Foster's Wembley arch peeks over the rooftops, ruining the illusion that we might almost be back in 1934, the year of Rosselson's birth.

The Life and Opinions of Andrew Rilstone: Songs of the Old Communist

A whole generation of kids mostly working-class kids intellectually crippled and lead to believe that music art? They looked a sorry bunch - the Daily Mail likened them to 'columns of displaced persons who struggled across Europe in 1945 or perhaps the enchanted followers of some Orwellian pied piper' - and some dropped out. An earlier recording, though, the Topic EP Songs for City Squares, was banned or rather labelled 'for restricted listening only' by the BBC.
