In the window to the left of the south door eight female saints, all martyrs, can just be seen. The font, dated from the mid 15th century, depicts the Seven Sacraments.

Cley St Margaret: St Margaret

The rectory, valued in the King's Book at £22. Beneath them are their children: William, Raufé, Aleyn, John, Cecily, Anne, Agnes and Rose.

St Margaret's, Cley

Cley Mill has often been depicted by local artists and was the subject of a painting by the 20th century English landscape artist,. Palimpsest is a term applied to brasses which in the course of their history have been looted, stolen, rejected or have otherwise lost their purpose and have been subsequently reused as memorials to others. Whilst it is a very decorated building parts of it are nevertheless derelict.

The gargoyles seem to be fourteenth century work.

Cley next the Sea

There are six misericords under seats in the chancel and the carvings are not as old as the seats themselves. Exeter, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve.
