Japanese language studies in the Shōwa period : a guide to Japanese reference and research materials / edited by Joseph K. Yamagiwa.

July 7 War breaks out between Japan and China. Hoshina 1936b, 11 Among the scholars who encountered the superior civilizations of the West, there were some whose worship of the West went so far as to advocate the reform of kokugo by replacing it with a Western language. As Koyama 1991 points out, this view of womanhood was underpinned by the belief that women and men were polar opposites both physically and mentally.
