This is not always detrimental to the client as the quotation above suggests. It consists in those lifelong activities that actualize the virtues of the rational part of the soul.

Robin Bryans Letter

After all the solicitor is not going to conduct the case himself or herself and part of what the client is paying for is knowledge about who is the best barrister for the job given its nature, the funds available, local conditions etc.

Major events in The Troubles

. . He treats this as an easily understood phenomenon, and has no doubts about its existence.
