Short Love Poems

Their clothes shabby, their skin lustreless; how clueless they are, hair a mess; how they trudge up and down streets in the rain, remembering one kiss in a dark alley, a touch in a changing-room, if lucky, a lovely wait for the phone to ring, maybe, baby. It has no limits nor expectations. Do you think expressing love through poetry is beautiful? Life before you must have been very dull, I don't remember much before you came along.
