This backdrop is usually taken for granted or carefully kept at a distance, but the works in this exhibition seek to bring it into the light.

Vincent Johnson

Por favor discute este problema en la. Morandi died of lung cancer on June 18, 1964. To be made, to be animated, to be moved—those phenomena have no claim to reality other than in the ghetto of subjective emotion or aesthetic experience.

Giorgio Morandi

There are various forms of monsters, beyond the borders of the human, of the normal, of the laws of reality, etc.

Giorgio Morandi Artworks & Famous Paintings

The underlying square fields of color that serve as the background for many of her works and the overlaying motifs, call to mind the work of early modernist abstract artists such as Kupka, Klee, and Léger. Her studio is in the botanical gardens.

Giorgio Morandi

The artist first paints the motifs and drawings of her work on translucent plastic sheets. A key painting in his oeuvre, this is one of a small number of works in which he drew inspiration from the Metaphysical school of painting and most particularly shows the influence of the leading artists of this style, Giorgio de Chirico and Carlo Carra.

Giorgio Morandi Artworks & Famous Paintings

They wanted to bring art back into life, back into politics, back into practice, often drawing up their own obscure horizons of animistic utopias.
