Fragonard Paintings, Bio, Ideas

The French aristocracy continually worked towards these three idols by gaining funds, titles, and lovers.

The paintings of Fragonard (1960 edition)

When I saw the beauty of the Raphaels, I was moved to tears, and I could scarcely hold my pencil.

The paintings of Fragonard (1960 edition)

Fragonard reportedly painted each of these portraits in only an hour and the speed with which they were executed contributes to the freshness and virtuosity of the brushstrokes.

The drawings of Jean

The painter's reputation rests on his love scenes, which hold great density of meaning, and for his use of light and color to transform both subjects and surrounding environments into showcases of virtuosity that capture emotions and reward extended examination. Fragonard stopped exhibiting his paintings in 1767, preferring to focus on work for private clients, and this is among the last to be displayed in an academic setting. Real Oil Paints, Real Brushes, Real Artists, Real Art.
