'GONE WITH THE WIND' STANDS AS A TRIUMPH OF FILMMAKING

This review addressed the issue of class, which is the main bone of contention that most of the more recent articles death with. Foster then created his own movie company, the Foster Photoplay Company, in order to be able to keep on building up a path for his African-American fellows, and went on making short movies with African-Americans in them, and no longer white actors in blackface. He cast her as lead in his next two films, Duel in the Sun 1946 and Portrait of Jennie 1948.
