Schreiber & White River

Geological Survey of Canada, 1887 Geological Survey of Canada: Report of Progress 1887-88 p. In the late 1970s and the 1980s, perhaps more emphasis was put on the Trans-Canada for Schreiber's future.

Native silver in vein

Queen Victoria's son-in-law, the , suggested in 1882 for a district of the then North-West Territories in honour of his wife, Princess Louise Caroline Alberta. The second one added after complaints by city residents isn't even on Memorial Ave.

CanadaGenWeb's Cemetery Project

The original route of the McIntyre River would have actually passed right through where most of the stores are now in the Thunder Centre. Back then, the railway was a very labour intensive business.

Report On The Mines And Mining On Lake Superior: The Gateway to Northwestern Ontario History

Mary Houston shown here as a teenager and the citizens of White River have made a great contribution to the understanding of 'the human experience' of railroading and living together in a small close-knit CPR community from its earliest days. Social services were provided mainly by the churches.
