Nigeria comprised 51% of this amount, followed by Kenya 10% , Ghana 9% and South Africa 6%. Such sector-wide exercises have also been carried out in other countries: Benin, Mauritania, Madagascar, Senegal, and Zaire, for example.

The Pitfalls of Water Privatization: Failure and Reform in Malaysia

Most SOEs have been performing below standard, with inefficient use of the government subvention that would have benefited the poor. A recent paper suggests the general desirability of a central administrative unit to manage the privatization program. Over a 25-year period, the Chinese government has encouraged innovative forms of industrial ownership, especially at the subnational level, that combine elements of collective and private property.

Studies

In Panama, 5 out of a designated list of 7 PEs have been privatized.
