ANTHROPOLOGY OF ACCORD: WHAT IS CHRISTIAN REALISM?

Context, intent, and consequence all matter. Insong, 1999 Yun Jung Moon, 1999 Reinhold Niebuhr is very attractive figure among 20 th century American theologians.

Christian realism

It serves as an inspiration to direct and guide the human moral resolve towards the ideal. Dougherty is darker than Eberstadt: Eberstadt argues that the way to end the moral panic about Christians and their institutions is for the two camps in the culture wars to acknowledge their differences and then agree to disagree. I learned that from my theology, my experience, and my shame.

Christian Realism 9

In this position, there are things like universals and abstract objects, but they exist within the mind of God.

How should a Christian view realism?

Despite the Christian realist underpinnings of scholars, originally associated with the , the revival of the interest towards religion in International Relations is a relatively recent phenomenon.

Christian Realism, Subsidiarity, and the Economic Crisis

Each has distinct metaphysical issues beyond those touched on above. Barronelle Stutzman is not that kind of Christian. Now I have criticized that interpretation of quantum mechanics before but in this blog I intend to apply it to substance dualism and show some of the implications if one wants to be a substance dualist AND hold to bohmian mechanics.

Christian Realism

For Niebuhr the empirical evidence is clear that the fate of 'agape love' in history will necessarily end in the tragic death on the cross.

Just how realistic is just war theory? The case for Christian realism

They argue that even though a certain pessimism surrounds a realistic account of international politics, that does not mean such a view of the world is necessarily amoral.

Christian Idealism and apologetics

In Leaves from the Notebook of A Tamed Cynic 1929, Niebuhr leverages the tragedy of laborers lives in passionate sermons that challenge his parishioners to wake up, to see the real world where they live, and to be responsible in it.
