Nigel Harris: The Revolutionary Role of the Peasants (December 1969)

Since India can boast a number of first-class economists, there are a great many high-level analyses of peasant problems and suggested solutions.

Daily, the workers operate the most advanced sectors of the economy, where innovation and change are constant dynamic elements destroying the inherited customs of the past. In areas such as central Chile and southern Brazil, where capital-intensive large entrepreneurial farms predominate, the kinds of reform measures required are different.

Peasant Culture

For men, the attire was a short tunic and either short, below-the-knee stockings or long hose, which fastened to the waist belt.

The Party used different demands in different localities to build up its support, demands designed to build not a class force so much as a national force, drawing on different sections of the population. It is one of your best, despite the tragedy of rape as a consequence of human depravity that provoked it. Many believe that peace is finally on the horizon.

A Critic Unfettered: The Legacy of Ernest Feder, Development and Change

What follows mainly concerns China, although elements of the analysis could also be applied to other countries, for example, Cuba. Cambridge, England: Cambridge University Press.
