This may be described as a form of medicalization, a mentalité which internalized an understanding derived from medicine and psychiatry and psychology. Taking into consideration its ambitions what grounds have so far been covered by UpHealth? Those effects were profoundly felt by the small and unsophisticated Palestinian economy, confronted with the challenge of competing on unequal and unprotected terms with the articulated, highly capitalized and technologically advanced Israeli economy. That attitude, the Committee said, was a violation by Israel of its international obligations as a party to the fourth Geneva Convention.
