Indebtedness is still robbing the peoples of Africa, Latin America and Asia of their rights — their rights to independence and political autonomy, as well as to health, education, water and all the other essential goods and basic services which should be available to all. This must be acknowledged, and restitution and reparations must be made. It deals with a true and proper educational project in which the positive relationship with other persons, attention to the person, the values of solidarity and of gratuity is joined to much professionalism and competence.
