As James McPherson wrote in What They Fought For: 1861-1865, most Confederate soldiers believed they were fighting against a tyrannical federal government that was invading their country and threatening their homes and families. And he correctly points out that when it suited his political purposes Lincoln clearly advocated secession, as he did in an 1848 speech about the Mexican War and with his unconstitutional orchestration of the secession of western Virginia during the war.

Public Poetry

Así que consideramos adecuado imitarle en este aspecto y seguir el camino que había recorrido de modo que aportáramos maneras que fueran convenientes a los suplicantes.

Moon Day Musings

According to Plato it is that distant memory of forms that allows us to identify things for what they are.

The impact of the TCK phenomenon: why study it?

En este caso, los hikam traducidos se caracterizan por mostrar la consecuencia espiritual en la causa o el estado interior en el signo exterior. The tone was not the militant, strident tone that I expected to hear, but cool, scholarly, and measured. Es considerado como un transmisor de hadiz confiable tiqa.
