Empire of the Sun

I still wonder what attracted Chuck to this. It is so detailed yet it is devoid of commentaries. Despite the hunger and the humiliation, Jim finds in Lunghua a kind of safety that he's unwilling to let go of.

Empire of the Sun (1987)

The story was later adapted into a film of the same name by Canadian director David Cronenberg.

Despite being a big Ballard fan, I'd never actually read this until now.

Empire of the Sun Movie Review

Jim spread his feet on the damp slope and wiped his hands on his ragged trousers. I listened to this on Audible.

Empire of the Sun (1987)

The actor was 12 years old when he was cast. How did the Japanese drivers get lost, when Jim can almost always see all these places? Ballard is not ignorant of the irony involved here.

GMT Games

I don't mean the period of the protagonist's incarceration. The cinematography is beautiful, the storytelling is compelling, but nothing really clicks.
