Naomi Klein

Both Freud and Klein regarded these biomenal forces as the foundations of the psyche. As a divorced woman whose academic qualifications consisted of not even having earned a bachelor's degree, Klein was a visible iconoclast within a profession dominated by male physicians.

Why War Psychoanalysis Politics And Return To Melanie Klein

In it, she attacks -oriented by describing the operations of large. Some of the theoretical orientation of psychoanalyss in both German and French and, later, American contexts results in part from its separation from and institutionalisation closer to departments of and literature or American cultural studies programs. As well as having to uproot from her homeland, she had much to contend with in her professional life with all the rivalries and intense hostility towards her ideas.

Why War? by Jacqueline Rose

I was wildly keen on knowledge, and deeply ambitious.
