Hodoiporiko (1989 edition)

It is by no means certain, however, that the word used here פנינים pânînyîm means rubies. It is now found in abundance in the Red Sea, and probably that which was known to Job was obtained there. The oriental ruby is the same as the sapphire.

Hodoiporiko tou 43 / Giannes Berates

The ruby is found in the kingdom of Pegu, in the Mysore country, in Ceylon, and in some other places, and is usually imbedded in gneiss. Created by an anonymous user Imported from
