The emphasis is on the spirit behind the ideas. As a microcosm of European thinking and as a center for education, jobs and opportunities for writers, artists and journalists, Vienna became a magnet for energetic, talented people from the Eastern lands and territories and became the major center for the spread of the modernity movement to the countries of Eastern and Southeastern Europe.

Graz

In the aggregate these writers, artists and scientists created an intellectual and artistic atmosphere that made Vienna a microcosm of all of the most recent European developments.
