Professional and Technical Writing

ESLR 50 and ESLR 91 are prerequisites for ESLR 310 and ESL 315. Being worthy of trust is something you earn with an audience.

Worksheets Worksheets (worksheets)

These can include letters, reports, business proposals, and business plans. Students may earn up to one-half unit per semester by completing 27 hours of work.

Professional and Technical Writing

Rhetorical elements logos, ethos, and pathos and cognate strategies clarity, conciseness, arrangement, credibility, expectation, reference, tone, emphasis, and engagement are goals that are achieved in good business writing. Our addition of the fifth point concerning clear and concise writing reflects the increasing tendency in business writing to eliminate error. Does the communicator have a responsibility to the audience? The combinations are endless, as are the possibilities for bypassing.

Worksheets Worksheets (worksheets)

In fact, high-powered business executives sometimes hire consultants to coach them in sharpening their communication skills.

Where does it miss the mark? Imagine working for an advertising agency or a software development firm; in such situations success comes from expressing new, untried ideas. Reading is one of the most useful lifelong habits you can practice to boost your business communication skills. Students discuss cultural practices and learn language patterns applicable to the hiring process in addition to preparing resumes, cover letters, and reference lists.
