Table 1. Personal and Professional Ethics, Values, and Morals

Professional	Personal
Ethics What relevant standards and expectations are outlined by my profession in its Code of Ethics? How do ethical principles conflict in this case? • If ethical principles conflict, use an ethical decision making process to resolve.	Values What relevant personal values apply in this case and where did they originate? What professional values are outlined in the Code of Ethics and do any of them apply in this case? • If there is conflict between personal and professional values, how can I manage my personal values so that I allow my professional ethics to guide me? • Seek supervision, use self reflection and values clarification process.
Laws and Policy Are there any legal obligations in this case? How do my agency's policies direct me? Are there any conflicts between my profession's ethics and my legal obligations or my agency's policies? • Legal obligations usually supersede professional ethics. • Agency policies should not prevent the ethical practice of social work. • Seek supervision in both cases.	Morals How does my behavior affect my relationship with others? What would I like to do and/or what would I want done to me in a situation like this? • Distinguish between personal and professional behavior and obligations.

of Law and by Kent Greenawalt

This is largely attributed to the dependent and powerless position of women. Law establishes this with the enforcements and punishments if you step over the lines shaped by laws.

Law, Morality, and Conflicts of Fundamental Legal Rights

For example, laws framed with a purpose of eliminating such evils and malpractices as drinking of wine, gambling, theft, dacoity and murder are moral laws.

Description: Conflicts of law and morality

If the brother judge ultimately finds his claim to Chief Justiceship denied to him by the Union Government, then what is his remedy? Both law and morality influence each other.

Description: Conflicts of law and morality

In April 2001 the Netherlands broke new legal ground by making a law making euthanasia lawful under certain circumstances. The ultimate result was not only the suppression of Sexuality but also the deep, inner feelings of expression which remained buried inside the heart of a Woman.

Criminal Law and morality

The courts however, intervened and decided the operation should go ahead; it was considered a successful operation if one girl survived while her weaker sister died. He also discusses techniques of amelioration of punishment for conscientious lawbreakers, asking how far legal systems should go to accommodate individuals who break the law for reason of conscience.
