When administration is the purpose, when ritual is merely repetition without heart overseen by persons set above the people, then the vitality and thrust of faith is mitigated. They understood that ancient need for the great cleansing. Your first and last sermons at a particular place of ministry are the first and last words your people will hear from you and, as with most things in a pastoral transition, first and last impressions are important.

Volume II

Why does your church want revival? Catholic tradition has always taught the Eucharist is the source of unity and community. Hours later about 3 in the morning they discovered that the woman they were searching for had been there all the time.
