Legends of Florence, by Charles Godfrey Leland

Now as for this reconstructing Hercules from a foot, instead of giving the fragment, at which few would have glanced, the success consists in the skill attained, and the approbation of the reader. Florence Tours will gladly provide you with a detailed explanation of all available tours in order to help you find the tour that best suits your needs. The variety of these prehistoric projectile points and tools, which were found in a one-square-mile area and which are from different stair-stepped eras of time, strongly suggest a permanent habitation by people who lived here long before the Choctaws.
