

Full answer to the Letter from a by-stander, &c. - wherein his false calculations, and misrepresentations of facts in the time of King Charles II are refuted, and an historical account is given of all the parliamentary aids in that reign, from the journals of the House of Commons, the ancient and modern power of the Crown, and the excessive height to which it is risen of late, are clearly represented : and reasons offered for restoring to the freeholders of England their ancient right of chusing high sheriffs and justices of peace in the country courts, as a proper means towards restoring the balance of our constitution, and putting a stop to the progress of corruption

Printed for J. Robinson ... -

Description: -

-

Marriage.

Great Britain -- Defenses.

Great Britain -- Economic conditions -- 18th century.

Great Britain -- Politics and government -- 1727-1760.

full answer to the Letter from a by-stander, &c. - wherein his false calculations, and misrepresentations of facts in the time of King Charles II are refuted, and an historical account is given of all the parliamentary aids in that reign, from the journals of the House of Commons, the ancient and modern power of the Crown, and the excessive height to which it is risen of late, are clearly represented : and reasons offered for restoring to the freeholders of England their ancient right of chusing high sheriffs and justices of peace in the country courts, as a proper means towards restoring the balance of our constitution, and putting a stop to the progress of corruption

-
CIHM/ICMH Microfiche series -- no. 20104 full answer to the Letter from a by-stander, &c. - wherein his false calculations, and misrepresentations of facts in the time of King Charles II are refuted, and an historical account is given of all the parliamentary aids in that reign, from the journals of the House of Commons, the ancient and modern power of the Crown, and the excessive height to which it is risen of late, are clearly represented : and reasons offered for restoring to the freeholders of England their ancient right of chusing high sheriffs and justices of peace in the country courts, as a proper means towards restoring the balance of our constitution, and putting a stop to the progress of corruption

Notes: Filmed from a copy of the original publication held by the Library of the Public Archives of Canada. Ottawa : Canadian Institute for Historical Microreproductions, 1983.

This edition was published in 1983

Filesize: 33.74 MB

Related Books

- Carl von Ossietzky in polnischer Presse der Zwischenkriegszeit
- Social choice and individual values
- Police and the community.
- Qing deng
- Merchants from Cathay