Comment on plans for next stage of Northstowe

Adoption of the Local Plan in South Cambridgeshire today means the Council will now use the plan as the cornerstone in all planning decisions made for the area. Cam Causeway looking south: the unusual width of this road, flanked by inter-war houses with a modern house at the end hints at the purpose behind its construction.

Planning Applications and Local Plans

It was also an important part of the open and rural character of the surroundings of the nearby villages. It is the main consideration in the determination of planning applications.

Committee details

There is no evidence before us that sites outside the Green Belt are available in a suitable location to meet these locally identified needs.

South Cambs MP questions number of homes being built

The notice required items not connected with agricultural use to be removed. The permitted use of area A has at all material times been residential, and that of areas B and C has been agricultural.

Committee details

His account shows that since Mrs Freda Cook left Hill Trees in 2012 on account of her ill-health, the first defendant has further changed and intensified his use of the land. This plan was submitted to the Secretary of State at the end of March 2014.

The incomplete Eastern Ring Road

This is a classic case, in my judgment, of playing the system, by which the first defendant has exploited every possible chance to hold up or frustrate the attempts of the democratically elected local authority to restore the site to its proper use. Our planning service is managed by the GCSP service, a shared service for us and South Cambridgeshire District Council.
