9780295988337: Carl Hagenbeck's Empire of Entertainments (A Mclellan Book)

This handbook brings together articles that summarize some of the crucial transatlantic concepts, debates and topics. Chapters discuss Habsburg science policy, metropolitan natural history museums, large technical projects including the Ringstrasse and water pipelines from the Alps, urban geology, geography, public reports on polar exploration, exchanges of ethnographic objects, popular scientific societies and scientifically oriented adult education. Hagenbeck was the nineteenth century's foremost animal trader and ethnographic showman, known for his enormously popular displays of people, animals, and artifacts gathered from all corners of the globe.

His discussion of ethnographic performances sets Ames's book apart.

Carl Hagenbeck's Empire of Entertainments

Hagenbeck was the nineteenth century's foremost animal trader and ethnographic showman, known for his enormously popular displays of people, animals, and artifacts gathered from all corners of the globe. It also provides many stimulating leads for the contemporary discussion of zoo design and of the interrelationship of entertainment and information, which continues to play a dominant role in zoos today.
