Nigerian Socio

Nigeria consumes an estimate of 18 billion Kilowatts and the production is way insufficient to have power supply on a regular. The decay in the justice system in this country needs to be addressed.

Economic Development in Nigeria: An Overview

Political violence causes disturbances to social life and results to disunity in communities and families as well as resulting to antagonisms within and among societal groups. Nationally, 40 percent of Nigerians 83 million people live below the poverty line, while another 25 percent 53 million are vulnerable. Therefore, politicians must carry out their campaigns in respect to issues rather than attacking their political foes on the mobilisation of regional, ethnic and religious sentiments.

Economic Development in Nigeria: An Overview

POVERTY: The mass poverty in Nigeria is capable of turning a decent man into a beast within a twinkle of an eye.

POLITICAL VIOLENCE AND SOCIO

This fund is being used as start-up capital for small businesses to generate income and improve their livelihood.

Nigeria Overview

Therefore, the key objectives of socio-economic development are: 1 Promote self reliance in developments, and build capacity, skill acquisition training, loans, for self- sustaining development. Nigerian oil reserves are said to be an excess of 35 billion and natural gas are well over 100 trillion cubic feet.

Environmental Issues And Socio

Socio-economic development is the relationship between economic activity and social life. The research work also established that vandals are some of the reasons for the socio-economic development.

Nigeria Overview

Several media reports have detailed how security personnel were on ground when these acts were committed, but look the other way because of their limitations in terms of their numbers or tools they need to carry out their duties effectively. Political violence creates migration of individuals resulting to mass migration of individuals from the Northern to the Southern part of the nation as a result of the destruction of property and assets as well as loss of human lives. Economic growth from services output remains stymied by the high cost of doing business in Nigeria, crime threats and associated need for security counter measures, non-transparent economic decision making, especially in government contracting.
