Prevalence

© 2006-2021 Raising Children Network Australia Limited. It is important to take action as soon as possible in order to give your child the best chance of a long and healthy future. Don't blame yourself - there are lots of reasons why children become involved in drugs.

Teen drug abuse: 14 mistakes parents make

Our fully trained addiction counsellors are here 24 hours a day and offer advice on both NHS and private treatment options. This is a youth health service in Hobart. You can change these settings at any time.

Part 8: Drug use prevalence and consumption

Data collected in 2012 found that nearly 13 percent of those with a substance use disorder began using marijuana by the time they were 14. Smoking, drinking and trying drugs are some of the most common ways in which many young people do this.

Where to get help for your teen about drugs

Although young people consume alcohol less often than older adults, they consume it in much larger amounts. Opioids continued to account for considerably more hospital admissions than any other illicit substance.

Drug Use in Wales

The proportion saying they had taken volatile substances has been around 3% to 4% since 2010, and class A drug use around 2% to 3% across the same period. And a teen can develop a substance abuse problem even in the absence of any family history of addiction.
