Nouns, verbs, and adjectives were categorized into several linguistic features, from modals in the verbal category to Latinate words in the noun category. Twentieth-century theories regarding the relationship between quotidian spatial practices and the exercise of power can help us understand the ethical implications of the ways Richardson's characters manipulate, interpret, and practice space. The firft Ba- byloniish prince correponds exad:ly in name, era, and adlions with the Perfian hiftorians.

Research and reports

Doing so I hope to enrich rhetorical theory with Native authors' ideas about language use and account some of the ways marginalized rhetors enter public discourse to promote social change, and look to the ways rhetorical theory can inform writing by Native people. He was in non« of the capitals of the Perfiao empire ; and we caaoot, I thinkt look for any in Afia Minor ; whilil, in the courfe of his famous expedition, be was in fuch a perpetual hurry of march and adion ; that he could have but little leifyre to ihidy any thing in a language and charaderi which in all probability he hardly knew.
