They also chart the unfolding of an intimate relationship between them. In 1921 she was married to the first of her three husbands.

Antonia White (Author of Frost in May)

Her career as a writer seems to have been driven by the desire to cope with a sense of failure, resulting initially from her first attempt at writing, and with mental illness.

Antonia White

Without a lapse from this style Antonia White traverses passages of which the only analogy is to be found in 's. This book of letters from the intelligent, critical, and blunt Antonia White to her friend Peter, has been edifying and informative. Her second marriage was to a man named Eric Earnshaw Smith, but this marriage ended in divorce.
