Fair Isle Knitting

Thought it was time for a new blog look and so after a weekend of many evil words mostly pointed towards Blogger, XML and my own limited skills here it is. Its popularity started in the 1950s and the garment has come in and out of fashion throughout the 20th century, but it was always used by locals as outdoor work outfits. The illustrations, charts and photos are large; it's easy to see what's going on when techniques are demonstrated, and to read charts without recopying.
