latter is dependent on the former.

Country profile

However, in contrast, the manufacturing industry has experienced a considerable increase in exports based on data between 1990 and 2010 as the industry acquired an 84.

The Unique Nature of Modernizing the Customs Union

On the other hand, the time gained would give Turkey and the EU room for manoeuvre in order to enforce and complete necessary reforms. Some observers even argue that the volatility in the country is less than in Greece, Portugal or Spain.

Modernising the EU

Nonetheless factors internal to the EU refusal of a Turkish entry by a member state government or electorate, or incapacity for reform , or through uncertainties on the Turkish side possible retrogression in the reform process , could motivate reappraisals.
