EMPLOYMENT APPLICATION EXEMPTION The Exemption According to the OMA, a municipality may meet in closed session to consider the contents of a specific application if the candidate requests confidentiality. If so, attorneys respond with an offer to represent you that includes a full attorney profile with details on their fee structure, background, and ratings by other LegalMatch users so you can decide if they're the right lawyer for you. Therefore, a municipality should not promise confidentiality of the evaluation or other documents that may be disclosed under FOIA.

The Pregnancy Discrimination Act of 1978 provides protection for teachers who are pregnant. If a municipality desires to use this exemption, we suggest contacting legal counsel to discuss any specific questions or concerns regarding what exactly can be accomplished in closed session. Some states and jurisdictions will require reasonable, ordinary care under the circumstances while other states will require extraordinary care, determining the type of care required by your jurisdiction may affect the outcome of your case.
