UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC)

Access to education Every child has the right to an education. Recovery and reintegration Children have the right to get help if they have been hurt, neglected, treated badly or affected by war, so they can get back their health and dignity.

How Do Human Rights Protect Children?

Children are neither the property of their parents nor are they helpless objects of charity. Where a child has both parents, both of them should be responsible for bringing up the child. In fact, the world's very first declaration on child rights was written by Save the Children founder, Eglantyne Jebb, in 1923.

The Convention on the Rights of the Child: The children's version

Prison should only be the last choice.

Corporal punishment of children and the Convention on the Rights of the Child

A third optional protocol was added in 2011. Adults should listen and take children seriously.

UN Convention On The Rights Of The Child

Prevention of sale and trafficking Governments must make sure that children are not kidnapped or sold, or taken to other countries or places to be exploited taken advantage of.

How Do Human Rights Protect Children?

The CRC is an aspiration which many countries including our own fall short of, however it is one that for the sake of children everywhere we must carry on striving towards. In 1989, four states had prohibited all corporal punishment of children — Austria, Norway, Finland and Sweden.
