The Probation of Offenders Act

Unless the offender has a forfeited all statutory good time, he or she will be released via Mandatory Release. § 3561 b for the first time shall attend a public, private, or private non-profit offender rehabilitation program that has been approved by the court, in consultation with a State Coalition Against Domestic Violence or other appropriate experts, if an approved program is available within a 50-mile radius of the legal residence of the defendant.

8 Common Probation Conditions for Sex Offenders

In Scarpelli, the court stated: Petitioner does not contend that there is any difference relevant to the guarantee of due process between the revocation of parole and the revocation of probation, nor do we perceive one.

A Study on the Probation of Offender Act, 1958

Also, there is no credit given for any time a parolee intentionally failed to respond or report to a Probation Officer or after a parolee has absconded from his or her area and the Probation Officer did not know where he or she was living. All Mental Health Probation Officer Specialist MHPOS receive specialized training specific to this offender population training and manage reduced caseloads. If the sentence is seven years or more the next hearing is scheduled 24 months from the time of the last hearing.

Probation Department

Probation is often reserved for first time offenders who commit non-violent crimes, and requires frequent reporting to a probation officer. Case Managers should be available to assist prisoners.

CSOSA

The defendant has the burden of establishing that if released pending further proceedings, they will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community.
