Congress Refuses to Extend Committee on Fair Employment Practices

Harassment is prohibited in all workplaces, even those with fewer than five employees. Creator Call number Physical description 1203.

Fair Employment Practice Committee

Although staff was mandated by executive order to send all significant correspondence and memoranda to Central Files for reference or documentation purposes, departments did not always choose to comply, citing confidentiality or the necessity of keeping active records near at hand. Correspondence sent to Central Files was classified, indexed, filed by subject and then cross-referenced by name of individual and organization in an alphabetically-arranged Master Card Index.
