Savill Index of The Advertiser Funeral Notices : A

The most likely date is 1851. Liberal education was essential, and by that Arnold meant a close reading and attachment to the cultural classics, coupled with critical reflection.

Savill Index of The Advertiser Funeral Notices : A

A poet himself, Murray believes Arnold was a superb poet who turned to criticism when he realised his gift for verse was fading. Literature and Dogma, Arnold's major work in religious criticism appeared in 1873. Beginning in the present it shifts to the classical age of Greece, then with its concerns for the sea of faith it turns to Medieval Europe, before finally returning to the present.
