Outturn Statements

All procurement entities have access to the Procurement Management Information System PMIS through their user credentials and regularly update their procurement information. However, there are cases of below-threshold contracts in which procurement entities have not entered information for all the awarded contracts. It shows the current financial status of your business, how cash is used and where the unnecessary costs are.

School finance information

It includes both revenue and capital expenditure and considers the overall, and service financial performance. If you sell a book binder used to manufacture books, you would sell it either for more than you paid for it a gain or less a loss.

The Education (Outturn Statements) (Wales) Regulations 2003

The bank's credit officer may review your statement of financial performance over a five-year period to gauge profitability levels or sales trends and ensure that you will have available cash to repay the loan. .
