GENUKI: City of London, London

Not until January 1837 were the first steps taken to introduce the system into the textile districts of Lancashire and the West Riding of Yorkshire by setting up 'poor law unions' and electing Boards of Guardians for them. Includes links to maps, and the manuscript sessions papers which include witness and defendant statements made before the trial took place and the Ordinary's Accounts biographies of convicted felons compiled just before they were executed. Refer to individual City of London parish pages to learn more about parish chest records.

Poor Law, workhouses and industrial schools

The CD contains comprehensive indexes for personal names, place names and occupations Merthyr Tydfil Poor Rate Book 1894; Union Abstracts and List of Paupers 1908 GenGuide is completely non-profit and I enjoy looking out for new resources and keeping the site up to date.
