History of the London Taxi

Being a new company it was not able to found a new school but it wanted, as many other livery companies do, to have an affiliation with a school that could benefit from its help. In Wales, responsibility for licensing is now devolved to the. They were introduced in 1897.

Worshipful Company of Hackney Carriage Drivers

If the car fails, it will not be able to ply for hire again until it has been back to the passing station for a retest. Pupils also make visits to Livery halls and the Guildhall to meet a range of experts from Surgeons to Architects and many others so they can understand firsthand about the variety of opportunities there are in the world of work and understand better the practical benefit of what they are being taught in school. It replaced the four-wheeled hackney carriage as a vehicle for hire.
