Stopping at in his course, he there spent two years, a prey to disease and dire poverty.

Luis de Camões

The priest spreads the warnings among the Catuals and the court, prompting Samorin to confront da Gama on his intentions. In 1552, during the religious festival of Corpus Christi, in the Largo do Rossio, he injured Gonçalo Borges, a member of the Royal Stables. Her first task was to revise her volumes of 1838 and 1844 for publication in a new edition.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning

Progressive measures had also been instituted in Tuscany by Grand Duke Leopold II, who arranged for a representative form of government and allowed the people to have a free press and to form their own civic guard.

Dr. Reena Camoens

Canto V ends with the poet's censure of his contemporaries who despise poetry.

Camoens

Jupiter says that their history proves it because, having emerged victorious against the and , this tiny nation has gone on to discover new worlds and impose its law in the concert of the nations. Camões is a master in these descriptions, marked by the verbs of movement, the abundance of visual and acoustic sensations, and expressive alliterations.

Camoens

Barrett had suffered serious financial losses. With the help of generous friends he continued his journey and reached in 1570, after an absence of sixteen years. DEBORAH B MARTIN APRN Individual Nurse Practitioner Acute Care 3601 THE VANDERBILT CLINIC NASHVILLE, TN
