Cities & Towns

The land is home to two former copper producers, the Tribag and Coppercorp Mines, with all kinds of occurrences of copper, molybdenum and iron formations. Algoma is the smallest region in Northern Ontario but still spans 28,000 square miles.

ALGOMA

I have been able to make difference. This seller has been making a lot of money over the past few years selling these maps to unaware individuals, maps which he downloads freely from internet. Old exploration and mine plan maps showed potential for further exploration.
